FOREWORD.

This number of the bulletin is a guide to information about Arkansas people—a sort of hand-book of published biography.

Many of the sources of this information are rarely met with by the general public. Only a little while ago no small part of it was even quite forgotten.

Today, whatever is listed here—not to mention very much more material of a similar nature—has been gathered up by the History Commission and stored in the public archives in such a manner as to make it readily accessible to any one who shall have occasion to use it.

In the first place, a number of books, largely or wholly biographical in character, have appeared from time to time in the past. Most of them, in the very nature of the case, could only hope to touch the field of historical biography in a few high places. The editions were very limited—copies of the several books were never at any time accessible to more than a few hundred individuals. Some of them, probably all, are now out of print.

In this bulletin and others to follow it is our aim to present the whole mass of this material in such a manner that one may at least know what we have and make use of it with the least possible difficulty.

In the second place, the Commission has acquired possession or custody of newspaper files covering almost the entire field of the State's history. In these old files is written the record—the only record in existence—of hundreds and thousands of the lives of men and women who had part in the processes which have brought Arkansas to its present state of development.

Such records usually appear in public print at the time of the individual's death. Naturally, the record, if not indeed the individual, is soon forgotten. A few years pass and nobody knows where to look to find any account of the person in question.

Newspapers, as a rule, do not index their files. The information they contain is lost, therefore, for all practical purposes, until by patient research some one who knows how to assess historical values has had opportunity to bring to light whatever is worth preserving.

This bulletin presents in alphabetical arrangement several thousand references to biographical sketches. All of them may be found by turning to the Commission's files for the dates mentioned.

It is only possible to give here a brief list of the material now being catalogued. Simply as an illustration of what the Commission is accomplishing in one particular branch of the labor assigned it do we offer this summary of results.

Another bulletin will shortly appear which will further illustrate the practical value of the Commission's work in a far broader field of activity and in such a manner, we have no doubt, that the importance of this work of conservation will be brought home to any intelligent citizen, in whatever walk of life, who is really and truly a well-wisher of all conscientious efforts making to put the people of Arkansas in that state of mental preparedness which will enable them to make the best use of the rare opportunities they enjoy.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ARKANSAS HISTORY COMMISSION
IN ANNUAL SESSION, JANUARY 16, 1915.

PRESENT: E. A. McCulloch, J. H. Reynolds, J. C. Futrall, J. J. Doyne, J. F. Mayes, Miss Clara B. Eno and Mrs. Frederick Hanger.

Report of the Secretary was called for, read and adopted as a whole.

Resolution introduced by Mr. Reynolds recommending that the secretary's salary be raised two years from this date, was unanimously adopted.

Resolution adopted, approving the work of the budget committee—the chairman and the secretary—and recommending that the secretary endeavor to get the item of $1,500 for Confederate roster raised to $2,000 when he (the secretary) appears before the budget committee of the 40th General Assembly.

Report of Auditing Committee adopted—the secretary's accounts were correct, except for one unimportant typographical error.

Messrs. Doyne, Reynolds and Herndon were appointed a committee on resolutions of respect and in memory of the late Rt. Rev. J. M. Lucey, a member of the Commission.

The secretary was instructed to draw and forward suitable resolutions expressing to members of the Capitol Commission the appreciation of History Commission for the generous consideration shown in the matter of assigning quarters and appointing fixtures for the quarters of the History Commission.

Mr. Reynold's Resolution:

Resolved that the chairman shall appoint a committee of two to act with himself whose duty it shall be to pass on all material of an historical nature as to its fitness for preservation and exhibition in the museum of the Commission. (The chairman announced that he would make the appointments at a later time.)

Motion to adjourn was adopted.

E. A. McCULLOCH, Chairman.

D. T. HERNDON, Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY, JANUARY 16, 1915.

To Your Honorable Body, The Arkansas History Commission:

The end of the year just passed will mark the close of a period of struggle in the life of this Commission. Difficulties that have lain in the way of its progress at many turns are fast disappearing. We are now entering another, a new period, in which the work of last year and the struggles of all the years that have gone before will begin to show results. This new period should be a speeding-up time for getting on in the way that we seek to go.

It is an achievement, an event of great moment, in the history of an institution, the like of this Commission, when it comes into possession of a home, a real, permanent home of its own. Such a place, such a home, the Commission now possesses in its own right. It is a place of business where the activities of the Commission can be carried on in a business-like manner, after a manner in keeping with the spirit and purpose of the various tasks that are to be performed.

This new place of work solves a number of very important problems, vital and immediate in their bearing on the administration of the affairs of the Commission. Most of these problems were problems only because we have had to try to carry on our work almost entirely without any suitable equipment. The quarters that we now have will open wide the door to larger opportunities for service—opportunities for which there has been no method of approach. Hereafter we shall be better able to translate our efforts and the results of our labor into a form of public service practical and direct in its application to a definite set of wants in the community.

The Commission has arrived at that point in the development of its usefulness which is only the beginning of the fulfilment of the vision that inspired its creation. That vision was, to speak by a simple figure, like the vision of a building to be erected. We have laid its foundation broad and deep and solid; the cornerstone is in place; today we are ready to begin the work of raising the walls, walls that must be plumb with the lines of the ideal just as far as it is possible to achieve an ideal.

The collection of building material suitable to enter into the construction of this building, which it has fallen to our lot to erect, is a task that presents peculiar problems. It would be by the way to attempt to speak here in detail concerning the nature of those problems. The only point to be made is this: the main cause of difficulty, as we have met with it in the past, has been entirely eliminated by proof of ability to take care of and to utilize the value of the material collected.

The liberal allowance which the State had made the Commission for a working equipment in furniture and fixtures will act like so much capital invested as an endowment for the purchase of material. Pioneer pictures and rare old paintings, historic mementoes and memorials—all impressively descriptive of the life of the people in other days—are to be had for the asking, provided only that we can give a reasonable guarantee of safety against all kinds of loss. All sorts of historical information, the sources of our unwritten history, will gradually find its way into the archives of the Commission as the one eminently proper place in which to preserve such things—as the best place to realize on or profit by the value inherent in them.

In spite of the difficulties that we have had to contend within our efforts to collect material, many things of value have come into the custody of the Commission. A list of contributors and contributions would be too long and tedious to recite in this report. These details would be better reserved perhaps for presentation in a bulletin and such a bulletin is at this moment ready for printing. It will appear as soon as there are sufficient funds available to provide for its publication.

Other material has been prepared for publication since the last meeting of the Commission. Bulletin No. 6, which contains more than one hundred pages of carefully selected data, is a summary of important historical matter relating to the Mexican War and the part played by the people of Arkansas in that war.

The Commission is required by law to prepare and publish rosters of all troops enlisted from Arkansas "in all the wars in which our people have participated." This duty has been performed for the Arkansas volunteers for service in the War with Mexico.

This roster of our Mexican War volunteers is a compilation of official information contained in the original muster rolls. The rolls—the original rolls—are in the archives of the War Department in Washington. Only historical investigators of recognized standing are allowed to examine and make copies of them. The Arkansas History Commission is allowed this courtesy and we have used our privilege to have copies made of several company rolls that were needed to complete the Mexican War roster.

The copying was done by a firm in Washington that employs what is known as the photo-stat process. It is nothing more nor less, as you well know, than the employment of the camera to make photographs of the document. Our experience with this particular company leads me to believe that their work is entirely successful.

More than that, however, they were recommended to us in the first place by officials in the War Department and also by members of the staff of the Library of Congress as being entirely reliable and one of two or three firms which the Government allows the privilege of handling precious and frail documents.

At the last meeting of this Commission a resolution was passed requiring the secretary to ascertain the probable cost of securing the necessary information from the archives of the War Department to complete the work, which we have already begun, to make a roster of Confederate soldiers from Arkansas.

I submit to you the results of our experience with the firm of photographers referred to above. Also I have secured from them estimates of the probable cost of photographing the entire lot of Confederate muster rolls in the War Department. I calculate on the basis of their estimate that we can secure all the information that will be required at a cost of $1,500.

The content and style of the roster of Mexican war troops is offered as an illustration of what we hope to do with our roster of Confederate soldiers. A little examination into the matter which it contains will reveal to anyone who has had experience in such work that we are attempting to execute a task that will involve an immense amount of labor. But it is labor with the reward of inspiration in it, because the results hold out the promise of service of a high and noble and lasting kind.

No people have more in their history that is helpful and hopeful; more that is calculated to inspire pride and patriotism, than have the people of this State. Again, no people have greater interest in knowing their own history or better reason why they should want it known to the world abroad.

Upon the success or the failure of the efforts of this Commission to achieve its aims will depend in some measure how much we ourselves shall know of our history and of what practical value it shall be to us in the development of high ideals of citizenship.

Let me try to say in a parting word what my own feeling is about the future of this undertaking, a matter which lies close to the heart of every member of this Commission. It is that we have every reason for facing the future with the courage and enthusiasm of rising faith in the helpfulness of the things that we hope to do. We cannot fail because first, last and all the time the enlightened public opinion of the State is bound to make common cause with us.

THESE THINGS ARE NOT TO BE TAKEN AS A CHALLENGE TO THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF THE
FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, BUT AS A
CALL FOR A RE-EVALUATION OF THE POLICY OF NON-INTERFERENCE IN THE AFFAIRS OF THE
INDIAN TRIBES. THE GOVERNMENT HAS A DUTY TO PROTECT THE INTERESTS OF THE INDIAN PEOPLE, AND TO SECURE FOR THEM THE BENEFITS OF CIVILIZATION AND CHRISTIANITY. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SHOULD TAKE SUCH MEASURES AS MAY BE NECESSARY TO ACCOMPLISH THESE ENDS. THE INDIAN
AND
THESE ENDS.
